Minutes of June 23, 2022 were approved.

Sales of Lots none

Burials Cremains of Heath Young, son of Keith Young of Claremont, were buried in the lot of his maternal great-grandfather, Robert Lyle Grant. Young's cremains are located at south edge of Lot B-3 in the Old Hill Road cemetery.

Kris Fenderson marked the site where cremains of Shirley Powers will be interred on July 29th at the left margin of lot H-4 in the new part of the Hill Road cemetery.

Mowing No invoices due this month. Mountainside Mowing has been notified of dates of cemetery trustees' meetings for the rest of 2022.

Tree Work Sexton Kris Fenderson had the large dead maple limb on the rear stone wall of the Hill Road cemetery removed and cleaned up by Russell Tree LLC. Russell's $1,100 invoice dated July 26 will be circulated via email for trustees to approve for payment. We approved an estimate of $1,800 to remove trees and all debris in the northeast corner of the cemetery; trees include a large dead ash and a tree overhanging the Herpel lot. Russell Tree LLC (Brett Russell), 72 River St., Alstead, NH 03602; telephone 603-313-0736. Tree work costs total $2,900; our 2022 budget for tree work is $3,500.

1. Mapping: Lillie LeBlanc volunteered to begin work on mapping the old part of the Hill Road cemetery using the 1956 booklet of burials in that space, and the handwritten map showing burials through 1871. More data may be available at findagrave.com. It was suggested that cemetery maps should be linked to the town's webpage or made available by a QR code.
